

Chinese Culture and Chinese New Year Celebration Week

上海耀中浦东梭区幼儿部及小学部 YCIS Pudong ECE & Primary

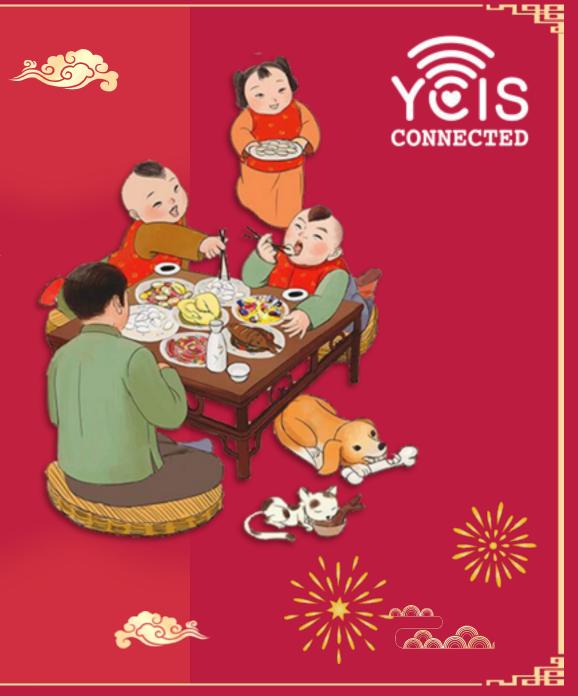

Chinese New Year 中国新年 "春节" Spring Festival

Chinese Spring Festival, also called Lunar New Year, comes on the first day of the Chinese lunar calendar and lasts for 15 days. It is the grandest and most important traditional festival for Chinese people and as we celebrate family reunions, it is similar to Christmas Day for the families from the west.

7traditional Custom 传统见俗

- * Every family does a thorough house cleaning and purchases new clothes, especially for children.
- * The Chinese character 'Fu' is pasted on the center of the door and paper-cut pictures adorn windows.
- * Red scrolls with complementary poetic couplets, one line on each side of the gate are added.
- ❖ A lot of food is prepared, including meat, fish, roasted nuts and seeds, all kinds of candies and fruits, etc. Dumplings and the reunion dinner are indispensable at this time. Food during this happy event has its characteristics, which is the representative of the Chinese festival food culture.
