Fairness 公正	Giving each person their share and making sure that everyone's needs are met.
Gentleness 温柔	Moving wisely, touching softly, speaking quietly and thinking kindly.
Justice 公正	Being fair in all we do. Making amends when we have hurt or wronged others. Protecting everyone's rights, including our own.
Mindfulness 警觉	Giving tender attention in ways that brings others happiness.
Moderation 节制	Living reflectively and meaningfully, with conscious awareness of our actions, our words and our thoughts.
Patience 耐心	Using self-discipline to create balance in our lives and to keep from overdoing.
Peacefulness 温和	Waiting peacefully. Quiet hope and faith that things will turn out right.
Trustworthiness 守信	Being worthy of the trust others place in us.
Unity 团结	Acting inclusively and finding common ground in our diversity.
Wisdom 智慧	Making wise decisions based on our deepest intuition.

Helping Hands

I am responsible.

I am safe.

I am positive.

I am respectful.

I am a learner.

GREAT!

You might see them...

- Observing their students from a distance to gain information.
- Facilitating movement breaks.
- Transitioning students to safe spaces with the support of a member of the SST.
- De-escalating upset/overstimulated students.
- Carrying iPads/notebooks as a way of monitoring progress.
- Modelling play, using specific play-related language.

SST- Student update

Key Student: Chace Zhang

What might you see?

1. Running around corridors
2. Hugging/squeezing friends.
3. Pushing or hitting other peers.
4. Overstimulated behaviour in specialist classes.

What should you do?

1. Explicitly verbalize the feelings of people around him:
e.g. "He's in pain because you're hugging too hard."
2. Verbalize consequences of behaviour: "he won't want to be your friend if you don't listen when he says 'stop!'"
3. Ask him/ Angela to take him to B305 for 'calm time'.
4. Pick your battles.
